Editor-in-Chief, European Journal of International Relations

It is with great sadness that the Editors of the European Journal of International Relations have learned of the death of our colleague and member of the Editorial Committee of the journal, Chandra Sriram. We had recently asked Chandra to join our Editorial Committee, valuing and hoping to rely on her energy, generosity and intellect, the breadth of her knowledge across international law and politics, and her extraordinary academic citizenship. She had just begun reviewing for us, and we were looking forward to getting to know her better through many years of collaboration. She will be truly missed as a member of the academic community. The Editors extend their most sincere condolences to Chandra's surviving family and friends.
